

19th ASPA GEORGIA CHAPTER Annual Academic Conference & Meeting

Call for Proposals

The 19th Annual ASPA Georgia Chapter Academic Conference and Meeting will take place on Friday, February 24, 2017, on the campus of Clark Atlanta University located at 223 James P Brawley Drive, S.W. Atlanta, Georgia. All sessions will be held in the Thomas W. Cole Research Center for Science & Technology with self-parking in the adjacent Morehouse College parking deck.

Individual presentations and panels identifying the current and future opportunities and/or challenges in public administration are welcomed. We are especially receptive to submissions that focus on the following areas:

- Social Justice and Welfare
- Health Policy and Management
- Educational Policy and Programs
- Criminal Justice Administration
- Environmental Policy and Management
- Policy and Program Evaluation
- Finance and Budgeting
- Nonprofit Programs and Management
- Human Resource Management

Individual or Co-Presenter Proposals require the following information:

- Name, Contact Information, Affiliation
- Presentation Title
- Presentation Abstract & Objectives (250-450 words Microsoft Word docs only)

Panel Proposals require the following information:

- Panel Chair, Discussants, Contact Information, Affiliations
- Panel Title
- Panel Abstract & Objectives (250-450 words Microsoft Word docs only)

Proposal Deadline: Friday, January 6, 2017

Send proposal via email to Dr. Sheila Toppin @ aspaga@gmail.com

Notifications will be sent by January 20th.

Conference registration and additional information is located at <http://www.aspaga.org/about-events.html>.